

Bracci Fabrics – 100% Made in Italy

The Bracci Fabric Collection represents excellence of the Made in Italy. Designed and woven in the district of Como in Brianza, territories well known worldwide as far back as 1300 which still today hold the world record for their capacity to manufacture fabrics and fine silks used by the high fashion and furnishing industries.

The Fabric Collection was born from a selection of well researched items manufactured with high quality textiles, exclusively produced in Italy according to the latest fashion trends and all the performance requirements of our North America customers.
